ADITUM ALTERNATIVE INCOME FUND COMMENTARY

May presented as a fairly choppy month with mixed views on the short to medium term macro environment.

Strong economic data was released during the month with U.S manufacturing and employment figures surpassing analysts' estimates which was complemented by positive market signals on the ongoing rollout of the COVID-19 vaccine globally, suggesting a strong growth rebound. With this comes concerns around the near-term inflation outlook, which the FED continues to depict as transitory, with yields on 10yr US Treasury decreasing from a high of 1.70% in April to closing May month end at 1.59%.

The Fund delivered a slight uptick during the month with most holdings recording modest positive performance. Top performers include the Fund's exposure to the emerging markets high yield debt space, alongside the Funds private debt holding. Emerging markets continue to benefit from strong external demand and elevated commodity prices. Elsewhere, the UK market has seen a considerable boost in confidence reflected by a stronger GBP which saw the Fund's long income UK real estate investments contribute to the positive monthly return.

*This indicative benchmark is calculated by Aditum Investment Management Limited using the USD 1M LIBOR rate published by ICE, assuming ACT/360 interest rate calculation, full notional invested and reinvested each month as of the last rate published the previous month.
