

Aditum Investment Management Limited Hits $200m Milestone with Expanding Fund Platform

Aditum Investment Management Limited, a privately owned asset management company based in the DIFC, is thrilled to announce that their DIFC platform, Aditum Global Access ICC Ltd, has surpassed US$200m in assets under management, as of 17 January 2025. Manoj Mahadev, Aditum's Head of Investments, stated: "This accomplishment reflects not only the strength and breadth of offerings under the platform, but also our clients and business partners confidence in Aditum's structuring capabilities and portfolio management expertise in both the Shari'a compliant space as well as in conventional assets. With a deep understanding of market dynamics and a commitment to delivering tailored investment solutions, we remain focused on driving value and long-term success for our stakeholders across all jurisdictions."

The platform already has 8 funds successfully launched and passported, making it one of the largest platforms in the region. Seven additional funds will be launched within the next couple of months, with two further funds, which are currently operationally ready, by the end of April 2025. David Marshall, Aditum's SEO, noted: "This milestone is a testament to the hard work and dedication
